

Dear partners and friends,

It is a great pleasure for us to share with you current and recent activities of the Bulgarian School of Politics "Dimitry Panitza"!

In this issue you could find information about:

Current activities and initiatives

Recent activities

Current activities and initiatives

We have renewed our website! Along with more information about the current projects and activities of the School, it provides more opportunities for debates and discussions. Please visit it at <http://www.schoolofpolitics.org/eng/>

The second course from the National Program 2012 is going to be from 25th to 29th January 2012. The topic is "Local development and self-government". More information will be published on our website.

Between 24th and 29th January, Tunisians Ahmed Driss and Emna Jebblaoui are going to do a study visit in Bulgaria and will have a series of meetings.

Recent activities

Class 2010 of the National Program continues its work with the children from the Social Institution for Children with Disabilities in Vidrare. Along with professors and students from the Sofia University, they realize a therapeutic program and support socialization of the children under the project “Young Leaders Assisting the Social Integration of Children from Institutions”, financed through the Bonita Trust. For more information about the priorities of Class 2010 in their activities with the children, please visit <http://www.schoolofpolitics.org/eng/index.php/news/130-detsa-vidrare-bonita>

The anthology on philanthropy in contemporary Bulgaria, which was developed within the project funded through the Charles Stewart Mott Foundation, is available upon request at the office of the School. It contains materials which will help those who donate or accept donations, best charity practices on how to collect donations for a cause, how to build long-term relationships with donors, templates of different documents, etc. Please feel free to contact us for a free copy.

Please join our Facebook page where we publish regular updates on our activities and initiate discussions on different topics!