The application process for candidates for the National Program Class 2013 is still open. As usual, the selection is via nominations from alumni, organizations or parliamentary represented political parties, followed by submission of documents and interviews with short-listed candidates. More information could be found at <http://www.schoolofpolitics.org/eng/index.php/programs/national-program/application-process-nat>

Recent activities

The 3rd Program Meeting of the Bulgarian School of Politics "Dimitry Panitza" with executives of leading think-tank and research centres working in the area of political and civic leadership was held on 3rd July. The goals of the meeting were to discuss the need for consultative procedures between politicians and citizens in the process of policy-making as well as opportunities for future development of the School. Representatives of the Open Society Institute - Sofia, Access to Information Program, Institute for Public Environment Development, American University in Bulgaria, Vagabond Magazine, Centre for Legal Initiatives - Legal Barometar, Institute for Advanced Education, etc. as well as members of the BSoP's Board of Directors took part in the discussions.
