

Dr. Frederick Mulder

Frederick Mulder was educated at Brown University (M.A., Ph.D in Philosophy), and Oxford University. His firm, Frederick Mulder Ltd, specialises in European printmaking 1460-1960, from Durer to Picasso, and he is one of the world's leading specialists in Picasso's printmaking.

He is the Founder and Chair of Frederick Mulder Charitable Trust, funded from the profits of his business, and is the Founder of The Funding Network, the first open, public, giving circle in the UK, which is active in eight cities in the UK and in six other countries.

He won a Beacon Fellowship Judges' Special Prize in 2004 for his contribution to pioneering, innovative approaches in philanthropy, and the award for Lifetime Achievement in Philanthropy in 2013. He was made a CBE in the New Year Honours 2012.
