

Michael Remmert

Michael Remmert is Deputy Head of the Directorate of Policy Planning of the Council of Europe (CoE). In particular, he is responsible for the network of the CoE's 19 Schools of Political Studies in Central and Eastern Europe, the South Caucasus and in parts of Northern Africa. From 2005 to 2011, Michael was in charge of organising the annual sessions of the Council of Europe's Forum for the Future of Democracy. From 2005 to 2010 he was the Manager of the Project "Good Governance in the Information Society". Earlier, Michael co-ordinated the Council of Europe's contribution to the two phases of the World Summit on the Information Society (WSIS, 2003 and 2005). He joined the Council of Europe in 1994 and has been working in the field of social cohesion, then on democratic institutions and e-governance. He studied Political Science and Economics in his home country, Germany, and in Canada, was a university lecturer and civic education trainer from 1988 to 1993, and holds a PhD in Political Science from the University of Freiburg/Germany.